Credit system	One ULima credit is equivalent to one hour of taught classes a week throughout the semester, or two hours a week of practical classes. The semester has 14 weeks of classes. Courses could have from 2 to 4 credits depending on the level of difficulty. The ULima credit is different from an ECTS credit. Some European partners use this equivalence: 1 ULima credit = 1.5 ECTS.
Grading system at Universidad de Lima	The grading system ranges from 0 to 20; any grade under 11 is considered a failed mark. Grades are organized as follows: mid-semester exam (30%), academic performance-homework (30%), and final exam (40%). The academic performance totals the sum of different quizzes such as group works, research projects, exercises, and class participation.
